Francesco

As you do know Pettenati has been producing velour and stretch corduroy velour in Brazil since 1975 .
We are producing for 39 years this fabrics, and still between the 5 best sellers in our line.
We hv been producing around 1.600.000 kgs (one million, six hundred thousands kgs) or 3.800.000 yrds(three million, eight hundred thousands yards) per year of this fabric in Brasil.
In 2008 when we hv opened El Salvador we have done a very big investment and took the whole technology for the production of the stretch corduroy velour in the region, to continue to work with our customers that hv been working with Pettenati for the past 18 years (like Lands End and LLBean).
Since 2009 we hv been producing the stretch corduroy velour in El Salvador for the United States in the Cafta. We have done a very big investment, and hv brought the whole technology from Brasil to the region to continue to work with Lands End and LLBean in this products. Lands End and LLBean our main customers for this product in the region, and hv been working with Pettenati for almost 20 years.
We are the largest producer of stretch corduroy velour in the américas. And we want to continue to invest and grow in this business.

Thank you for your attention on this matter.

Best regards
